

Metadata specialists in the machine age

Satellite meeting organized by

- IFLA Cataloguing Section
- IFLA Information Technology Section
- IFLA Subject Analysis and Access Section
- IFLA Bibliography Section

Hosted by
Central Library
Aristotle University
Thessaloniki, Greece
22 August 2019

IFLA's Cataloguing Section, IFLA's Information Technology Section, IFLA's Subject Analysis and Access Section, and IFLA's Bibliography Section are pleased to invite you to

Metadata specialists in the machine age

Programme

08.30 - 09.00	Registration
09.00 - 09.10	Welcome and information about the day
09.15 - 10.45	"What does it mean to be a librarian in the digital age? Example of data.bnf.fr" (Raphaëlle Lapôtre and/or Tiphaine Cécile Foucher)
10.45 - 11.15	Break
11.15 - 12.45	"Automagic data" (Caroline Saccucci)
12.45 - 13.45	Lunch
13.45 - 15.15	"On the automation of subject analysis and access. Foundations, requirements, steps towards implementation" (Anna Kasprzik, Andreas Oskar Kempf)
15.15 - 15.30	Break

Venue

The meeting will take place at the Central Library, Aristotle University (<https://www.lib.auth.gr/en/central-library>) in Thessaloniki, Greece, on Thursday 22 August 2019.

There will be no fee for the meeting. Light refreshment will be provided during the breaks. This event is one of the Satellite Meetings which will be held in conjunction with the IFLA World Library and Information Congress in Athens, 24-30 August 2019.

Registration deadline: 15 June 2019 at <https://forms.gle/odnfMyDEToZHxpVa7>

Website: <https://www.lib.auth.gr/en/iflawlic2019>