A new old library
Sofia Zapounidou
& Eleftheria Koseoglou
The surrender of Thessaloniki by Topsin pasha to Crown Prince Constantine, 1912.
1912

Constantin Carathéodory (1873–1950)
Greek mathematician
most of his professional career in Germany

George Streit (1868–1948)
Greek lawyer and professor.
King Constantine’s legal advisor
Minister of Foreign Affairs (1913–14)
The 1st Battalion of the Army of National Defense marches before the White Tower on its way to the front, Thessaloniki 1916
1919-1922

Eleftherios Venizelos (1864-1936)
Greek politician
Prime Minister (1910-1915, 1917-1920)

Ionian University of Smyrna
(Dec.1920-Sep.1922)
Destruction of Smyrna, 1922

Refugees from Smyrna, 1922
Alexandros Papanastassiou (1876-1936)
Greek politician, lawyer and sociologist,
Prime Minister of Greece in the interwar period (1924, 1932)
1927

- Foundation of the Library
- Donations
- Acquisitions of important collections
- Collections from Asia Minor and Black Sea area

Benefactors and Donors of the Library
Collection go back in time thanks to donations

- 113 Manuscripts dating from the 10\textsuperscript{th} century
- Rare books dating from 1495
- Maps from the 16\textsuperscript{th} century
Digenis Akritas Manuscript, [1632]
Recueil des cartes de partie des isles de l'Archipel, 1687
Detail of the general title
Library collection

1.302,000 printed and electronic books
through the Library Catalog, http://search.lib.auth.gr/

16,000 electronic journals
64 bibliographic databases
through the library website, http://www.lib.auth.gr/

>4,000,000 digitized pages (archival collections, books, articles, newspapers, doctoral & postgraduate dissertations, research papers published by AUTh Faculty, etc.)
through Psifiothiki and IKEE, http://search.lib.auth.gr/
Communities continue to build our collections

Interviews of Holocaust and other genocides survivors.

Donation of Archives & Library
In 2014 a monument was inaugurated at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki in the memory of the old Jewish cemetery and also as a tribute to the Jewish community of Thessaloniki.

Thessaloniki’s Jewish cemetery as it was before it was destroyed in 1942, during the German occupation of Greece. The cemetery was established in ancient times and on the eve of the Second World War counted approximately 500,000 graves in an area of 350,000 square meters, making it probably the largest Jewish cemetery in Europe and maybe the world.

Source: eKathimerini 06-12-2017
Central Library + 45 branches

The AUTH Library includes:

- The Central Library (2 buildings) with Students’ Main Reading Room (1300 seats)
- And 45 Departmental Libraries
Buildings of the Central Library

1927-1974

The first University library was founded in 1927 and started operating for 47 years at the first floor of the old building of Philosophy where today we can find the Library of Folklore and Social Anthropology.
Buildings of the Central Library

1974 -
In 1974 moved in the heart of the Campus to it's own four-storey premises building which was designed by the architects K. Papaioannou and K. Phines
In 2000, the new Central Library building was inaugurated, next to the old one.
Services & Open Source software
Publications, exhibitions and events

Publications

Exhibitions

Conferences
1st Erasmus Library Staff Training Week - 2017

2nd Erasmus Library Staff Training Week - 2018
Stay tuned following our pages

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o_vrzhiP7G4

https://www.facebook.com/aristotlelibrary

https://twitter.com/AUThlibrary

https://www.instagram.com/auth_library/